ABOUT US

Spring Water Youth Hub was established in 2011 and registered as a non-profit organization with the main focus of uplifting the youth in underprivileged communities in the beautiful Waterberg region of Limpopo, South Africa. We are situated in the town of Mookgophong, also known as Naboomspruit.

Our aim is to empower, uplift, educate, and holistically develop these young children to become who they were born to be. We passionately believe that they will rise above their circumstances and become part of an inspiring group of future leaders in their communities and beyond.

We have various projects ranging from feeding programs, educational programs, and a sports academy.

Through our feeding programs, we provide food to families in need and distribute food parcels to creches and schools.

Our educational programs include a volunteer program that welcomes volunteers from around the world to assist in creches, schools, and communities with tailor-made packages. We also organize informative youth gatherings at our youth hub and hold bible study sessions. The sports academy at our youth hub aims to keep children off the streets and provides them with the opportunity to connect with other youths through competitive sports and utilize the playground facilities while parents can socialize.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM DETAILS

Volunteers work approximately 5 hours a day in a public kindergarten or an NGO-run after-school center, catering to toddlers from some of South Africa's poorest townships.

Working closely with local teachers, volunteers introduce children to basic concepts in subjects such as culture, geography, math, and writing.

Additionally, they promote good manners, positive behavior, and the overall development of the children through activities like dancing, art-making, games, and sports.

Local teachers also rely on volunteers to provide individualized attention to children who may be falling behind and to supervise recreation time.

The program's structure and facilities vary based on location, available resources, and the level of trained staff. Volunteers will be working with infants up to 6-year-olds.
